

I am writing asking that you not expand the LPFM stations in a way that will take priority over the current FM translator service. I listen to K-LOVE very often as do thousands here in Oklahoma City. The station gives us the news like we enjoy it and we are able to listen to the music we like. Thank you for your consideration.